Mr. Heusron introduced a bill appropriating $22,000 for the payment as compensation. of the messengers for bringing to Washington the votes of President, and Vice Precisions.

The bill having been read twice, Mr. Housron asked that it be put on its passage remarking that several of the messengers are already in the city, and that it allows them the usual compensation.

Mr. Stremens, of Ga., inquired what the compensation was.

Mr Statutes, of Ga, inquired what the compensation was.

Mr. Houston replied twenty five cents a mile.

Mr. Statutes— When was the law passed!

Mr Houston—In 1848.

Mr Statutes rejoined, that it appeared to him double compensation was allowed four years ago.

Mr Houston capitaled that the former compensation was then merely restored, it having been proviously out down one half.

Mr Statutes said that all he wanted was to put the messed green on an equality.

The bul was passed.
